Miscreants Blow Up Hoisting Works

Dynamite Placed Under St. Louis-Ontario Plant at Park City During Absence of Crew.

SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE. PARK CITY, July 29.—The St. Louis-Ontario hoisting works were blown up at 1 o'clock today by some persons who seemed to have a desire to destroy property.

P. J. Lepelt, who has charge of the property and the three men employed in the mine had been to dinner and were just returning when they heard an explosion and saw the sides of the building and roof rise. Those further investigation it was discovered that dynamite had been put in the building and set off, perhaps with the idea that the explosion would take place about the time that the crew returned to work.

Investigation showed that a man had come up the trail from the Provo river and returned, new-made tracks being perfectly plain, as last night's heavy rain here had obliterated all old tracks.

The force of the explosion was sufficiently great to throw the corrugated iron sides of the building out to tear off part of the roof, and to destroy the hoisting bucket and a heavy mine car which stood near the collar of the shaft.

The St. Louis-Ontario officers were notified and went over at once, but as the hoisting works were on the other side of the Wasatch line they could do nothing.

HEROISM OF A BOY.

Rescues Legless Cripple From Fire, But Is Badly Burned Himself.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 29.—There were several narrow escapes from death and numerous displays of heroism today at a fire in the Lincoln lodging-house on Market street near Market. The flames, which were first seen in the basement, occupied by the Peerless Awning company, quickly rushed up the elevator shaft.

James Price of Fresno, the seventeen-year-old elevator boy, saw the smoke and at once thought of a legless cripple, Jonas Attell, uncle of Abe and Monte Attell, the pugilists, who lay asleep on the fifth floor. He started the burning elevator and went to the rescue. After some trouble he aroused Attell, but could not open the door of the man's room. Making his way to the roof, he signaled the firemen and the cripple was saved. Price was badly burned, but will survive.

Mrs. Nellie Alexander held on to the ledge of a fifth-story window until she was taken down by the firemen. Mr. D. Markins of Nevada City, was overcome by the smoke, but was carried out by firemen. Mrs. Sawyer, who reached her room by climbing over the balcony, was rescued by firemen. Mrs. Baker was rescued, half suffocated, and with many burns. Others escaped, several being more or less injured. The loss by the fire is about $20,000.

WARNED TO KEEP AWAY.

Large Property-Owner in Cripple Creek Protected by Police.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Colo., July 29.—Patrick McCarver, one of the men who were deported to the Kansas line by the military early in June, returned to Victor, where he owns property, including a large hall and business block valued at $25,000. When McCarver disembarked from the train he was taken in charge by Maj. H. A. Naylor, Acting City Marshal. McCarver was allowed to attend to some business affairs and was placed on board the first out-going train, with a warning that in future police protection would not be afforded should he return. McCarver was originally deported for openly expressing sympathy with the miners' cause, and for his military subordination.

COUGHED UP PENNY.

Victim of Supposed Tuberculosis Is Now Improving.

BOSTON, July 29.—After years of suffering from an illness which several physicians said was consumption, Miss Iva Blackman, 25 years of age, of Newton Upper Falls, has coughed up a penny, and her health is rapidly improving. When the girl was recovering from diphtheria fifteen years ago she swallowed the penny. She fell ill about five years ago and the physicians diagnosed her case as consumption. Miss Blackman was seized with a particularly violent coughing spell a few days ago and in an effort to prevent herself from coughing, thrust her finger down her throat. The next instant she withdrew her hand and up came the penny.

SOCIETY DANCES THE MINUET

Swellldom in Newport at Grand Ball.

Mrs. Reggie Vanderbilt Establishes Herself as a Social Power.

Sandy Point Farms the Scene of a Costly Entertainment for Party of 400.

NEWPORT, R. I., July 29.—Sandy Point Farms, the summer home of Mrs. Reginald Claypoole Vanderbilt, was the scene of a magnificent and costly ball this evening, a record breaker in many ways and the colony of millionaire families here was staggered by its extravagance. In giving the ball Mrs. Vanderbilt proved herself to be one of the most powerful young matrons here.

Was Costly Function. Formal balls never have been in vogue in Newport, yet the Vanderbilt ball was as conventional and as costly as if held in a Fifth avenue mansion instead of in a rambling frame house overlooking the sea. Mrs. Astor has entertained with delightful dances at Beechwood, and she insisted that an air of informality pervade them, but young Mrs. Vanderbilt aimed at and gave an imposing entertainment.

Three Hundred Invited. Three hundred invitations had been issued, mostly to the younger portion of society, but the young host and hostess did not forget the elders, and among the older guests were Mrs. Astor, Mrs. James P. Kernochan, Mrs. Elbridge T. Gerry and other of the older women of society. Between these two classes came the set in which Mrs. Herman Oelrichs, Mrs. Fish, Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont and Mrs. Richard Gamble are leaders, and it also was in attendance.

Huge Ballroom. When Sandy Point Farms was built it was intended as a house for entertaining, and the whole lower floor was thrown into a huge ballroom. It is surrounded by a broad veranda, where there were cushioned chairs and couches for the guests who sit out dances. Supper was served on the veranda and in gay little tents of heavy striped silk, which, by the way, did service at the marriage of Miss Gladys Brooks and E. Van Rensselaer Thayer in September of last year.

Feature of the Affair. The feature of the ball was the collection by Elisha Dyer, Jr., and Harry Lehr, Dyer, who helped the young Vanderbilts with their arrangements, danced with Mrs. "Reggie" and Lehr lead from the other end of the hall with Mrs. Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt. A minor feature was the dancing of six persons wearing the fancy costumes of Colonial days. Mrs. Glen Collins, formerly Miss Nathalie Schenck, who is now staying with the Vanderbilts, arranged it as a surprise. The collection favored was most beautiful. Mrs. Vanderbilt bought them when in Paris on her honeymoon, and gold pencils, gold cigar clips, gold mounted powder puffs and gauze fans among the mementos she gave her guests.

This gorgeous ball served the combined purpose of the housewarming of Sandy Point Farms and the coming out of Mrs. Vanderbilt as a matron.

BALANCES IN TREASURY.

Secretary Shaw and the President Consider This Question.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 29.—Conditions of the treasury, regarding the working balance in the department, were considered with the President by Secretary Shaw. Thus far, during July, the expenditures of the Government have exceeded the receipts by about $20,000,000. As a result, the working balance of the treasury has fallen below $20,000,000. This fact has suggested the possibility of making a call on national bank depositors for a part of the deposits of the Government in their vaults. Secretary Shaw is convinced, however, that no call will be necessary, perhaps for a considerable time, and so informed the President.

Today's statement of the treasury shows available cash balance, $149,071,790; gold, $4,827,627.

Frenchmen Held in Berlin. BERLIN, July 29.—Two Frenchmen have been arrested and imprisoned at Wilhelmshaven on suspicion of espionage. They had in their possession photographs of the new fortifications at Wilhelmshaven and of the fort at Altona.

King Edward Extends Sympathy. LONDON, July 29.—King Edward yesterday telegraphed to Emperor Nicholas his sympathy with him on the loss of his distinguished Minister, Von Plehve, and has received a very appreciative reply.

Red Hot Fight Occurs in Side Show

Bear, Boa Constrictor, Snake Charmer, Tattooed Man and Whistler Take a Hand.

ATHOL, Mass., July 29.—One of the side tents of a show on the common was the scene of an exciting encounter between George, the Rocky mountain bear, and the monster boa constrictor, Admiral.

Miss Mary Cole, the snake charmer, was feeding her pets, when the bear attempted to interfere, whereupon the snake recoiled by winding itself about the bear. The hissing of the snake and the growls of the bear startled the occupants of the tent.

Miss Cole, attempting to separate the combatants, was bitten on the arm by the snake. Her arm was dressed by a physician, and it is thought that no serious results will follow.

Sig Royal, the keeper of the bear, Capt. Kuhn, the tattooed man, and Walter Derby, the snake whistler, all took a hand in separating the bear and snake and rescuing Miss Cole.

SLOCUM HORROR.

Federal Grand Jury Returns Several Indictments.

NEW YORK, July 29.—Capt. Van Schaick and Federal Steamship Inspector Fleming and former Inspector Lundberg were indicted today by the Federal grand jury in connection with the disaster to the General Slocum on June 15 last, when nearly 1000 lives were lost.

Van Schaick was the commander of the Slocum. United States District Attorney Burnett said that indictments also were returned against President Barnaby, Secretary Atkinson and Treasurer Dexter, of the Knickerbocker Steamboat company, and Captain John Pease, the commodore of the company's fleet. Gen. Burnett said that when these men and Capt. Van Schaick and Inspectors Lundberg and Fleming are arraigned for pleading on Monday he will insist upon bail being fixed at $25,000 in each case.

HOLY ROLLER APOSTLE.

Joshua Creffield Is Finally Run Down in Corvallis, Or.

CORVALLIS, Or., July 29.—Joshua Creffield, the Holy Roller apostle, was discovered in hiding under the dwelling house of O. Short in this city this morning, and is now confined in the county jail in this city. The house where he was found is the same at which household articles, usual instruments, wearing apparel and other articles of value were burned several months ago. When discovered Creffield was naked and in a half-frenzied condition. During the last week, one by one the followers of the sect have been sent to the insane asylum and to the boys and girls home at Portland. In all, half a dozen have been sent to the asylum.

The Portland police were notified of Creffield's capture. He is wanted there on a charge of adultery. Detectives will arrive at Corvallis this evening and return with the prisoner tomorrow.

Chaffee, Jr., who accompanied the General here, will go to Los Angeles.

LIANG YANG, July 29.—Further details of the fighting below Ta Tche Kiao July 24 and 25 indicate that the Japanese losses may reach 5000 men. The Russian losses are officially stated to be about 700.

FAR REACHING TERRORIST PLOT

Murderous Conspiracy Is Disclosed.

Slaying of Russian Minister the Outbreak of Another Nihilistic Scheme.

Documents Found Which Reveal Plan for Wholesale Murder of Officials, Excepting Czar.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 29.—The name of the assassin of Interior Minister Von Plehve is given by the Bourse Gazette as Proetz, but this is not confirmed by the police, who, if satisfied that they have established the identity or even the nationality of the murderer, are carefully guarding the facts perhaps to throw his accomplices off the scent.

Plot a Far-Reaching One. The general public is disposed to regard the crime as intimately connected with the far-reaching terrorist plot revealed last summer by the arrest of Gerschunin, the Russian revolutionary agitator at Kiev, where he had gone to organize an attempt on the Emperor's life at Saroff during the ceremonies incident to the canonization of St. Seraphim. The subsequent trial established the fact that Gerschunin was the head of a murderous conspiracy similar to the nihilist conspiracies of the early '80s, the object of which was to create a reign of terror in Russia by killing Ministers, Governors, and the Emperor.

Gerschunin is a Jew and was a former petty official in St. Petersburg. Beginning of Conspiracy. The perpetrators of the murder, as well as the victims, were to be selected by lot. The series of crimes resulting from this conspiracy began with the attempt on the life of Privy Councillor Pobedonostsev, chief procurator of the Holy Synod, who was fired at by a student named Logowski March 22, 1901, and included the killing of M. Bogdanovitch, ex-Governor-General of Ufa, European Russia, who was assassinated May 19, 1903; M. Bogolepoff, former Minister of Public Instruction, who was shot by Peter Karpovitch February 27, 1901, and died March 15 of the same year, from the effects of his wound, and M. Sipilguine, Mr. Von Plehve's predecessor, assassinated April 16, 1902, by a student named Balmashoff, and the attempts on Prince Obolensky, now Governor-General of Finland, while Governor of Kharkoff, he being fired at four times August 11, 1902, and Prince Galitzin, Governor-General of the Caucasus, who was stabbed by three natives in the outskirts of Tiflis, October 23, 1903.

Murder of Finnish Governor. The more recent murders of Governor-General Balmashoff of Finland, who was shot by Eugene Schumann June 16, and of Vice-Governor Andreoff of Elizabethopol, Trans-Caucasia, assassinated July 17 last, probably were not connected with this plot. Gerschunin was captured and he and two others, one of whom was a woman, were tried, convicted and sentenced to death, but the Emperor, with Van Plehve's acquiescence, commuted the sentences to fifteen years' imprisonment.

Gerschunin is now serving his sentence in Schlusselburg prison. Later the correspondent of the Associated Press learned that Gerschunin, the identity and nationality of the assassin and his accomplice are still not definitely established, the police are making progress in unraveling the skein. They are amazed to find how far-reaching was the conspiracy. There is nothing yet, however, to prove its connection with that of Gerschunin. The documents found show the existence of a wholesale plot to murder Ministers, but the most remarkable feature is that it did not include the Emperor, who is distinctly declared to be "uninvolved."

Accomplices Are Captured. The capture of the accomplices of the murderer was effected under circumstances showing that the conspirators pursued the very plan followed at the time of the assassination of Alexander II. The accomplices then were posted at several street corners in order that if one man failed another might succeed. The same plan was adopted yesterday.

Plehve's Widow Faints Away. Mrs. Plehve, widow of the deceased statesman, arrived here today. She is broken down, but is calm. The sight of her husband's remains caused the widow, who suffers from heart trouble, a shock, and she fell to the floor in a fainting condition. Doctors revived her and later she went to the Minister's villa on the islands of the Neva.

The funeral of Von Plehve has been fixed for July 31. Requiem masses will be celebrated daily. The Emperor is expected to attend this evening's services.

DEAD MAN LAUDED.

Russian Papers Print Long Accounts of Late Minister of Interior.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 29.—The newspapers this morning are filled with very long accounts of the assassination of Minister of the Interior Von Plehve, biographical sketches of the dead statesman and comments on his career. The Novoe Vremya says:

"M. Plehve was a strong, intellectual man, but most of all he had a thorough insight and knew well what particular

Farmer and Owl Have Lively Bouts

Feathered Chicken Thief Had Best of Contest With Horny Handed Son of Toil.

EGG HARBOR, N. J., July 29.—Early in the morning George Fanslow, a farmer living in South Egg Harbor, was aroused by an unusual commotion of the chickens at his place. Partially dressing himself, he lighted a lantern, and getting his shotgun, hurried to the barn, where he expected to find chicken thieves helping themselves.

As he neared the barn the noise continued, and, not wishing to enter for fear of an attack, he called to the thieves to come out. When the same noise continued with no response, Fanslow entered the barn.

He had hardly stepped inside when he was attacked by a large horned owl, which buried its talons deep into his neck and shoulders and lacerated his hands. The attack was so sudden and unexpected that Fanslow was being worried, and called for help. His son heard his cries, went to his assistance and succeeded in killing the owl with a club.

The bird measured four feet and two inches from tip to tip, and was the largest horned owl ever killed in this vicinity.

MOYER MAKES STATEMENT.

President Western Federation of Miners Wants Members Protected.

DENVER, Colo., July 29.—The News today prints the following from an interview with President Charles H. Moyer of the Western Federation of Miners, who is here to confer with officials of that organization.

"It is time to call out the troops again to protect our men in the Cripple Creek district. There is no legal authority there now. The Sheriff's officers cannot control things. A mob controls and our men are being subjected to white-captivity, whippings and every sort of brutal treatment," said Mr. Moyer. "If the Governor had wanted to be fair he would have called martial law to acknowledge the troops and left, say, fifty soldiers there to deal impartially with all violators of the law. Instead of that he withdrew all the troops and left the commission and mob in control, leaving our helpless men to the mercy of that mob. He simply indorses the mob, asks us to call off the strike, and will not allow our men to go back. To call the strike off would be a single question that we were wrong; that the treatment we had received was right, and that we got what was due us."

The Governor ignores the real issue. He asks that we call off the strike because he has called off the military, and then let the people decide who is right. If the people were to decide that the Governor's military policy was right that would not settle a single question at issue. Let the Governor, the mine owners and the Citizens' alliance submit the questions that caused us to strike—the eight-hour day and the right to organize. If he had asked for a decision on these questions I might have called off the strike."

"We have not yet taken up the matter of calling off the strike, but I do not see what it should be called off. If it was just in the beginning it is just now and its continuance is just. The Governor and his Adjutant-General convict themselves. They have been saying that the strike was wrong, yet they ask us to call off the strike, which they say does not exist."

"But I believe that our men will go back anyhow. If they do go back, unorganized and unprotected, as they would go, the Governor will have no chance to show the people whether he is fair or not."

CARDS ISSUED TO MINERS.

Cripple Creek Mine Workers Number Largest in History of District.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Colo., July 29.—Four thousand three hundred and nineteen cards have been issued to miners of the Cripple Creek district by the Mine Owners' association and 300 applications are still on file. Of the total number issued today more than 2100 have been in exchange for cards surrendered by former members of the Western Federation of Miners who have renounced allegiance to the organization. Never have more than 4500 miners been employed in the Cripple Creek mines at one time, and then only when all the larger mines were working a night shift. At that time the Federation membership has been much in excess of 3000.

Converse Succeeds Taylor. WASHINGTON, July 29.—Secretary Morton today announced the appointment of Rear-Admiral George A. Converse as chief of the bureau of navigation, Navy department, to succeed the late Rear-Admiral H. D. Taylor, who died at Copper Cliff, Ont., a few days ago.

Roosevelt at His Desk. WASHINGTON, July 29.—President Roosevelt began his official duties in the White House early today. Gen. O. Howard called to inform him that he expected to appear on the stump for Mr. Roosevelt during the campaign.

POLICE CALL HALT ON THE STRIKERS

Chicago Officials Take Bit in Teeth.

Strike Leaders Cannot Issue Orders to Unions Save in Private Halls.

Manifesto Regarded by the Strikers as Parallel to Attitude of the Colorado Authorities.

CHICAGO, July 29.—Inspector Hunt has issued a verbal manifesto that the police will no longer permit strike leaders to issue disseminate orders to the members of the union, save in private halls. Regarding the manifesto as a parallel to the attitude taken by the authorities in Colorado, the strikers were thrown into an ugly mood.

Mob Attacks Non-Unionists. Clarence Morris, a non-unionist, formerly a circus performer, was set upon by a mob of strikers today and severely beaten.

George Suter, a supposed strike-breaker, and Edward McDonald, said to be non-union men, were also attacked and are in a serious condition.

Labor Leader Turns Picket. President George F. Golden of the Teamsters' union turned strike picket today, defied Police Inspector Nicholas Hunt and was arrested.

Golden discovered a wagon owned by Terry & Co., being driven past his office. He called to the teamster: "Where are you doing?" "Anywhere I please, so long as I attend to my own business," was the reply, whereupon Golden ordered the driver to turn back.

The inspector heard the command and reassured the teamster, telling him to go on about his business. Then came a war of words. Hunt, shaking his club at the strike leader, declared there would be an immediate arrest if Golden did not shut up. He refused and the arrest followed.

Crowd Gathers Quickly. The arrest caused great excitement and within two minutes several thousand men had gathered to watch the proceedings. "This is an outrage," declared Golden. "I have been guilty of no offense against the law." At the time of Golden's arrest the police also took into custody G. T. Buser, who was in the teamsters' headquarters. He was charged with interfering with an officer.

Finally Admitted to Jail. Both prisoners were taken to the station in a patrol wagon. Bail was refused them, and they were sent to cells vehemently protesting against what they declared was an outrage. It was the first time that a chief of the striking thousands was taken into custody.

Later, however, President Golden, after a stormy talk with Police Inspector Hunt, in which the latter declared that the Teamsters' organization took part, was liberated on bail.

Insane Negro Arrested. Declaring the Lord had commissioned him to end the packing-house strike by killing all the strikers, John A. Leed, a negro, caused much excitement at the stock yards today. He was arrested after a struggle and found to be carrying a loaded revolver. The police are in doubt whether Leed is insane or only shamming.

Thrown Into Panic. Eighty negroes being transported from the stock yards in two cars on the Lake Shore road were thrown into a panic by a rumor that a mob of 200 throwing stones, which demolished nearly every window in both cars. Explosion of a torpedo warned the engineer to stop.

Instantly a mob rushed out from places of concealment and the rock throwing began. Three policemen standing upon the platforms beat back the rioters, while the frightened negroes hid under the car seats, while the train pulled away from the scene.

Exciting Chase of Wagon. Attempt to smuggle out non-union meat from the stock yards through subterfuge today resulted in an exciting chase and the complete failure of the plan. The meat had been loaded by Armour & Co. into a wagon by the Great Western Art company, and eluding the vigilance of the pickets the driver had passed out of the yards. The pickets shortly after learned the facts. They mounted a street car, overtook the driver and compelled the man to turn back to the yards, where the meat was unloaded.

Disorders at Nelson, Morris & Co.'s branch in South Chicago today caused the arrest of five men who had attacked retail meat dealers going for supplies and overturned two wagons. The leaders were arrested.

May Ask Federal Aid. If the Freight Handlers' union should attempt to enforce an order forbidding all members from handling consignments to and from the stock yards the action will be fought by the American Anti-Boycott association and the Federal authorities will be asked to intervene. So asserted Daniel Davenport, executive agent of the association, who arrived in Chicago from Bridgeport, Conn., today. The freight handlers' order was adopted by its council, and then suspended pending a call for President Donnelly. Mr. Davenport said the
